

FMLC Webinar

Robinhood: hero or outlaw? Markets, equity and manipulation in an age of social media

Tuesday 16 March, 1.00pm
Zoom Webinar

SPEAKER BIOGRAPHIES

Carlos Conceicao
Clifford Chance LLP

Carlos Conceicao is a partner at Clifford Chance LLP specialising in contentious regulatory work. Prior to joining Clifford Chance in 2007, Carlos was Head of Wholesale Enforcement at the FSA.

Edward Greene
Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP

Edward Greene served as General Counsel of the Securities and Exchange Commission from 1981 to 1982 and Director of the Division of Corporation Finance from 1979 to 1981. From 2004 to 2008, he served as General Counsel of Citigroup's Institutional Clients Group.

Edward originally joined Cleary in 1982 and returned in 2009. During his more than 20-year tenure at the firm, he was also resident in the firm's Washington, D.C., Tokyo and London offices, and was the first licensed foreign lawyer to be admitted to practice law in Japan in 1987.

Edward is currently a Senior Research Scholar & Lecturer-in-Law at Columbia Law School and has been a Lecturer at the Harvard Law School and an Adjunct Professor of Law at the University of Pennsylvania and Georgetown University Law Center. He was Chairman of the Legal Advisory Board of the New York Stock Exchange from 1995 until 2001, and was a member of the SEC's Advisory Committee on Capital Formation and Regulatory Processes.

Harriet Territt
Jones Day

Harriet Territt is a partner at Jones Day where she has over 20 years of experience in resolving significant financial disputes and regulatory issues with a particular focus on the cutting edge of financial technology. Increasingly, Harriet works with clients on liability, risk, and governance issues arising out of the fintech revolution as well as being regularly asked to advise on regulatory enforcement issues related to sanctions, money laundering and market abuse allegations before the FCA and other global regulators.

Registered Charity Number: 1164902.

"The FMLC" and "The Financial Markets Law Committee" are terms used to describe a committee appointed by Financial Markets Law Committee, a limited company ("FMLC" or "the Company"). Registered office: 8 Lothbury, London, EC2R 7HH. Registered in England and Wales. Company Registration Number: 8733443.

Linda Chatman Thomsen
Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP

Linda Thomsen, who was the first woman to serve as the Director of the Division of Enforcement at the Securities and Exchange Commission, is counsel in Davis Polk's Litigation Department and practices in the Washington DC office. Her practice concentrates in matters related to the enforcement of the federal securities laws. Linda has represented clients in SEC enforcement investigations and inquiries, in enforcement matters before other agencies, including the Department of Justice (various U.S. Attorneys Offices) and the Commodity Futures Trading Commission, in investigations and inquiries from self-regulatory agencies, including FINRA, and in internal investigations.

Linda returned to Davis Polk in 2009 after 14 years of public service at the SEC. While there she held a variety of positions and ultimately served as the Director of Enforcement from 2005 through February 2009. During her tenure as the Director of Enforcement, she led the Enron investigation, the auction rate securities settlements, the stock options backdating cases and the expansion of the enforcement of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.

Timothy Massad
Harvard University

Timothy Massad is currently a Senior Fellow at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University and an Adjunct Professor of Law at Georgetown Law School.

Timothy served as Chairman of the U.S. Commodity Futures Trading Commission from 2014-2017. Prior to that, he served as the Assistant Secretary for Financial Stability of the U.S. Department of the Treasury. In that capacity, he oversaw the Troubled Asset Relief Program (TARP), the principal U.S. governmental response to the 2008 financial crisis. Timothy was with the Treasury from 2009 to 2014 and also served as a counselor to the Treasury Secretary.

Prior to his government service, Timothy was a partner in the law firm of Cravath, Swaine & Moore, LLP. His practice included corporate finance, derivatives and advising boards of directors. He managed the firm's Hong Kong office from 1999 to 2002 and represented governments and corporations on transactions throughout Asia.